

The Parent-Teacher Meeting held in May, reflected not just academic discussions but a shared commitment towards growth, discipline, and excellence, as Shivians appeared for their very first examination of the new session.